SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

San Diego, CA 92101

McGREGOR SEA & AIR SERVICES (AMERICA) INC.

CINEMATRONICS, INCORPORATED

CASE NUMBER

491479

TEMPORARY PROTECTIVE ORDER

McGREGOR SEA & AIR SERVICES (AMERICA) INC.

for

- I. The Court has considered the application of plaintiff (above) X I am entitled to attach order, order for issuance of writ of attachment pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with CCP 405.010) and a temporary protective order
X I am entitled to attach order and order for issuance of writ of attachment pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with CCP 405.030)

FINDINGS

A. Plaintiff's claim:

- i. The circumstances in which the application for attachment - i.e., the manner in which the matter for which may be attached is held to establish the probability of the claim upon which the application for the attachment is based. The order is not sought for a purpose other than the recovery upon the claim on which the application for the attachment is based.
ii. The nature of the property which would result in the plaintiff's issuance of the order is delayed until the matter can be heard in another action based on the following:

- (i) X The new or changed if the property sought to be attached would be:

- (a) X consumable
(b) X substantially unmarketable
(c) X made over, or liable to be, by other than the claimant of or subject to impairment or value.

- (ii) A copy of the order was recorded in:

County on date
with the Clerk of the Commercial Code with respect to a bulk property by the defendant.

- (iii) An order now has been issued pursuant to the provisions of Bus. & Pol. Code 24024 with respect to the same by the defendant of a bankruptcy (Numbered)

- (iv) Other circumstances precluded.

- C. The requirements of CCP 405.120 are satisfied, but a temporary protective order should issue instead of an order entitled to attach order and order for issuance of writ of attachment.
An order of doing in the amount of $2500 is required before a temporary protective order is issued and plaintiff has filed an undertaking in that amount.
The property subject to the following order is attached.

"All corporate property for which a method of levy is provided."

*Alternative relief only.

This document is a temporary protective order issued under the California Rules of Court, Rule 10.100. It is not a final judgment and does not affect the parties' rights and liabilities under the underlying action. After the trial, the court will determine whether to enter a final judgment or to dismiss the case.

Case No. 82-1000

ORDER

Court: U.S. District Court

Defendant(s): CINMATRONICS INCORPORATED

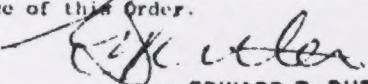

Plaintiff(s): Federal Trade Commission, et al., as indicated in the property described in item 2g of the findings

1. Defendant(s) shall pay over to the plaintiff(s) the proceeds of any transfer of inventory or farm products held for sale or investment by defendant(s) during the period beginning January 1, 1982, and ending December 31, 1982.

2. Plaintiff(s) shall further order:

- a. The defendant(s) shall allow plaintiff(s) to inspect and copy all documents, records, books, papers, and other materials in their possession, custody, or control relating to the property described in item 1 above, and to make copies thereof, at any reasonable time and place, and for a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 30 days, unless otherwise ordered by the court. The inspection and copying may be conducted under the supervision of a court reporter, at the expense of the defendant(s), or at the expense of plaintiff(s), whichever is less. The inspection and copying may be conducted at the defendant(s)' place of business or at another place designated by plaintiff(s). The inspection and copying may be conducted at any reasonable time and place, except during regular business hours.
- b. The defendant(s) shall allow plaintiff(s) to inspect and copy all documents, records, books, papers, and other materials in their possession, custody, or control relating to the property described in item 1 above, and to make copies thereof, at any reasonable time and place, and for a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 30 days, unless otherwise ordered by the court. The inspection and copying may be conducted under the supervision of a court reporter, at the expense of the defendant(s), or at the expense of plaintiff(s), whichever is less. The inspection and copying may be conducted at the defendant(s)' place of business or at another place designated by plaintiff(s). The inspection and copying may be conducted at any reasonable time and place, except during regular business hours.

Dated: September 3, 1982 Honorable

EDWARD T. BUTLER

EDWARD T. BUTLER, Associate Attorney General, who has been retained by the court to represent plaintiff(s). You may object to the undertaking on the grounds of the unreasonableness of the charges or the amount of the undertaking (TCPA 489(d)).

d. The property of claim plaintiff(s) which is subject to seizure by the temporary protective order may not be probated or otherwise disposed of prior to the conclusion of the antitrust cause of action, but may be used appropriate restrictions on the disposition of the property by the court, if necessary.

e. You may issue any number of checks against any of your bank accounts in this state in any amount for the following purposes:

(a) Payment for legal expenses, including legal and law firm fees and premiums for workers' compensation claims, and for payment of attorney's retainer due in the ordinary course of business prior to the day of a trial, if necessary.

(b) Payment for goods thereafter delivered to you C.O.D. for use in your trade, business, or profession.

(c) Payment of taxes, if payment is necessary to avoid penalties, which will accrue if there is any further delay in payment.

(d) Payment of reasonable legal fees and reasonable costs and expenses required for your representation of defendant(s).

In addition, you may issue any number of checks for my purpose so long as the total amount of such checks does not exceed the greater of the following:

(a) The amount by which the total sum of all expenses exceeds the sum of the amount of plaintiff(s)' claim and the amounts permitted to be paid pursuant to this notice.

(b) One thousand dollars ($1,000).
